PRIME CATTLE AND O.T.M.S. 94 HEAD.

HEIFERS: 27 Head.

A terrific entry for numbers, saw demand extremely strong from ringside. A smart Limousin from Terry Kennealy topped the sale and section at 238p, others sold 227p again from Terry which realised £1396.05.

Rugby Farmers Mart 10th Anniversary Dinner Dance

After much thought, the Directors of the market, who were charged with organising the function, have decided to postpone it until we have more control over costs. Our original idea was to put up a marquee at the market, but the cost was prohibitive to say the least. We then moved the date so that we could hire one of the showground's function rooms, and whilst this was cheaper, we had to use their caterers and this is where the prices escalated to an unreasonable level. The market was giving away some complimentary tickets, but the price for the sale of the others would have been too high.

We will be having a celebration of the markets anniversary, but will now be combining it with the opening of the new market when that happens.

Thank you for bearing with us.
